

Design your own bunting

This activity sheet will help you design your own bunting for Autism Acceptance Month. Be as creative as possible and celebrate your originality and uniqueness.

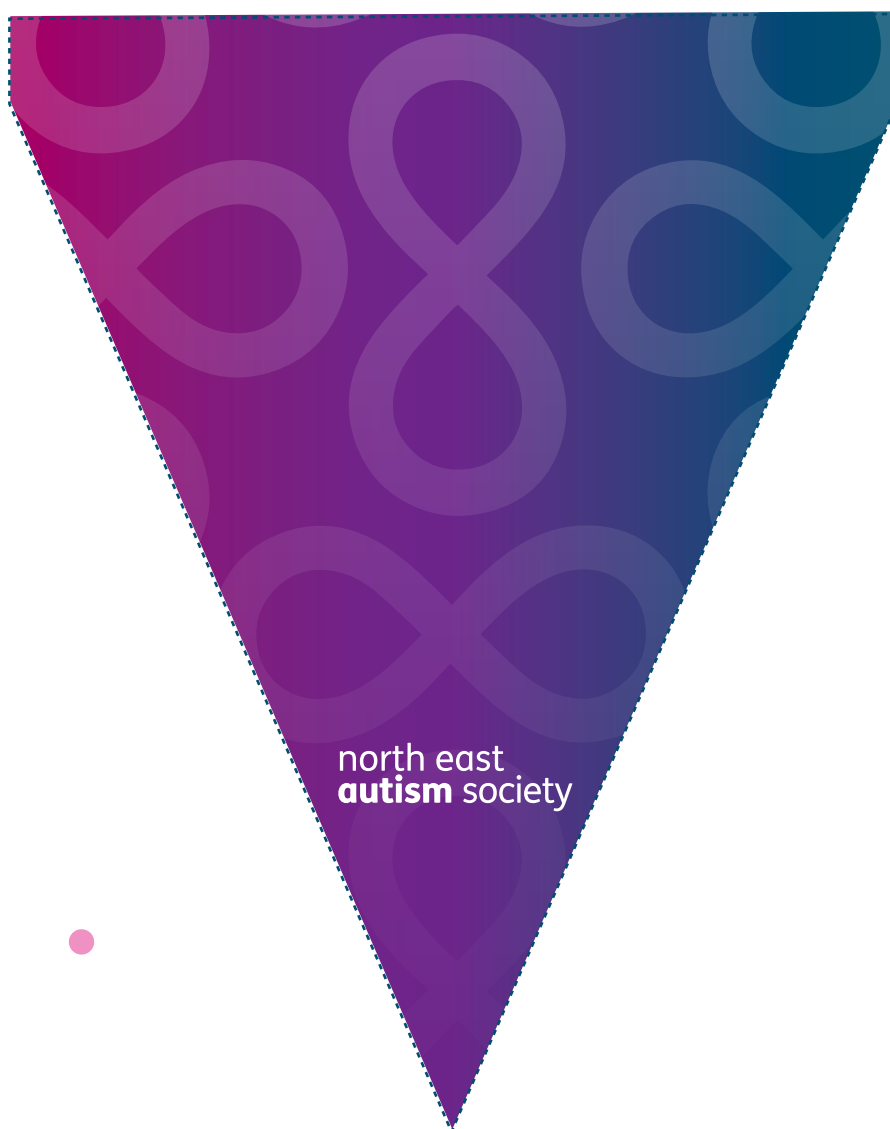

Simply print out your bunting template and get decorating.

If you're doing this activity in school or at your office, have everyone write their names on the back so you can admire each other's work.

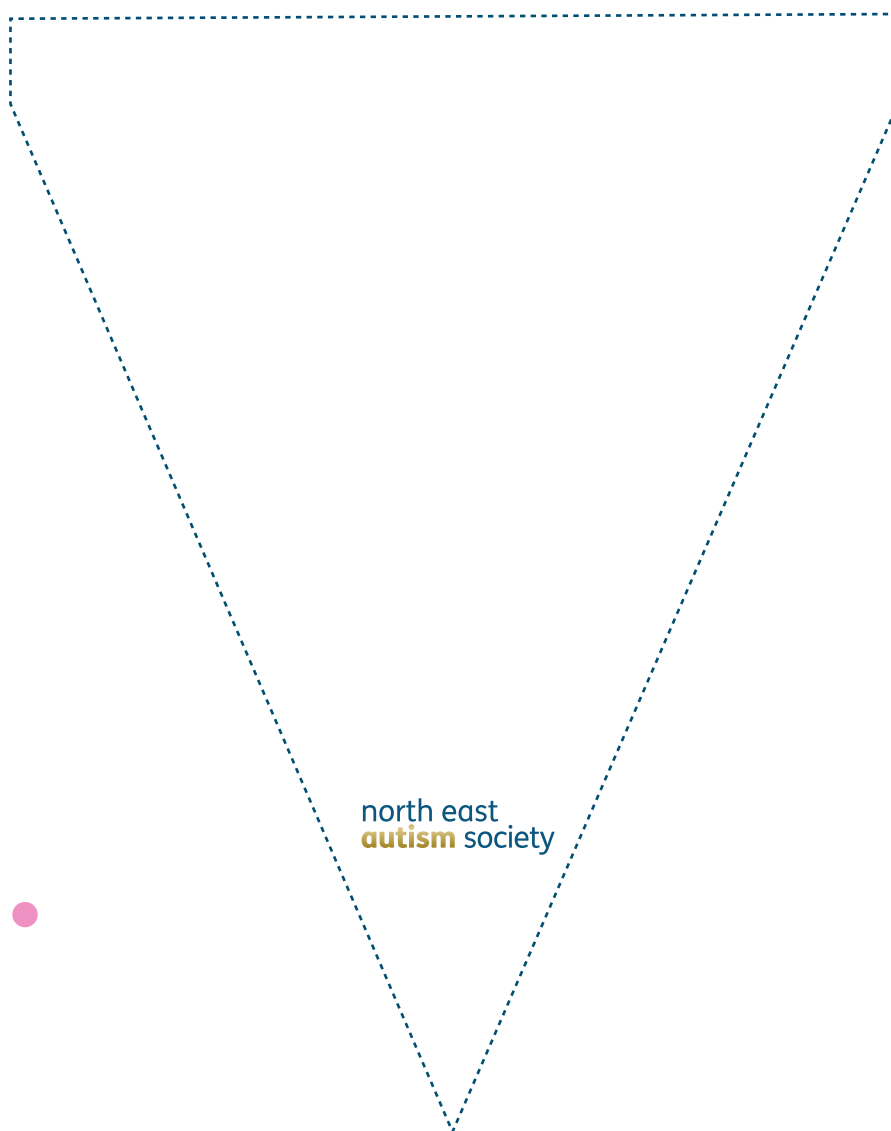

Use a hole punch and string to attach the bunting together, hang them up for Autism Acceptance Week!

Bunting

Colour your own bunting

north east
autism society

